

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

The Centre-Val de Loire Regional Centre for Youth Information (CRIJ – Centre Val de Loire) is a regional association founded in 1989 and member of the national youth information network. It targets young people (mostly from 15 to 25) and it aims to inform them about all topics that may have an impact on their daily life.

Our project is available for 4 volunteers. The CRIJ is looking for 2 volunteers.

Your mission will be:

- to inform young people about your volunteering experience and to inform them about the different volunteering options through the participation in various information events
- to create educational animation tools that help to inform young people about international mobility (exhibitions, games etc.)
- to co-animate fun activities that help to raise awareness on interculturality and that contribute to the learning of foreign languages
- You will have free time to develop any kind of project that you want.

ACCOMODATION, FOOD, TRANSPORT ARRANGEMENTS

You will be hosted in common or single flat, each volunteer has his/her own room. You will receive pocket money (180 euros) and you will get monthly food financing, as well as a free transport card to travel in the city.

Working hours: 30 hours per week. From Monday to Friday. Possibility to work on Saturday with recovery.

Travel costs will be covered.
